

Tony Brancato
Senior Vice President - Business Integration
President - Associated Air Center

Tony Brancato was appointed President, Associated Air Center (AAC) in 2017. AAC is StandardAero's Transport Category VVIP completion center located in Dallas, Texas, which closed operations at the end of 2017. Later in 2017, Brancato was appointed Senior Vice President, Business Integration, following the approval of the company's acquisition of Vector Aerospace. In that role he is leading the combination of the two businesses. Brancato reports directly to the CEO of StandardAero and serves as a member of the company's Executive Leadership Team.

Brancato has more than three decades of aerospace industry experience, most recently working at Walbro, LLC, a Carlyle portfolio company. Prior to that, he held executive roles with Honeywell Aerospace, including VP of Global Business Aviation Aftermarket which generated more than $1.4B in revenue and managed a network of 300 service centers. He also served as President of Honeywell's Federal Manufacturing & Technologies, a 2,700 person high security operation for the U.S. DOE. Prior to Honeywell, Brancato worked in leadership positions at Textron Lycoming and Rockwell International. He holds an Associate of Science degree in Engineering and FAA Airframe & Powerplant Certificate from Long Beach City College of California. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Management from the University of Phoenix and an MBA from University of New Haven. In addition, Brancato has completed Honeywell's Executive Development Program and is a Six Sigma certified Black Belt.

StandardAero is one of the world's largest independent providers of services including engine and airframe maintenance, repair and overhaul, engine component repair, engineering services, interior completions and paint applications. StandardAero serves a diverse array of customers in business and general aviation, airline, military, helicopter, components and energy markets. StandardAero is owned by The Carlyle Group (NASDAQ: CG), a global investment firm with deep industry expertise that deploys private capital across four business segments: Corporate Private Equity, Real Assets, Global Credit and Investment Solutions. With $216 billion of assets under management as of December 31, 2018, Carlyle's purpose is to invest wisely and create value on behalf of our investors, portfolio companies and the communities in which we live and invest.
